

LEADING IN CONDITIONERS: NEUTROGENA CLEAN AND REPLENISHING CONDITIONER

INTRODUCTION TO THE PRODUCT:

This Neutrogena clean and replenishing conditioner was ranked among the top cosmetics last year and still holds its post. It aims to condition and hydrate dry and damaged hair. This moisture enriched formula softens hair while it penetrates dry, damaged strands to strengthen and make hair more resilient. It rinses clean and won't weigh hair down, so it's great for everyday use. It leaves hair shiny, silky, and healthy looking. It also contains a fresh and clean scent.

97% of reviewers have recommended the product it to their friends. It has been a highly successful product over the years. At affordable rates, it is within the reach of every section of society.

The product maintains the moisture of the hair leaving it silky and smooth, unlike its counterparts that make the hair dry after use. Neutrogena has a number of shampoos and conditioners in its product range, however, this is one hard to miss.

A LOOK AT THE PRODUCT:

REVIEW:

This product does not create any sort of health concern. It leaves no extra residue after use thereby creating no environment for side effects as well. The conditioner is specially formulated for moisture and shine and with its lightweight formula, serves the purpose healthily. It can be used everyday as it is a mild formula.

Many customer reviews have shown that this product is indeed on the positive side. The perfume is not too strong smelling and therefore is appealing. It makes hair very manageable. It improves the texture and health of the hair. It causes no irritation to the scalp and is perfect for those who have a sensitive scalp as well. It has proved to be apt for all hair types. Therefore, this conditioner is a definitely a big yes for most users.